Register of Decils

President Garfield's portrait is to b placed upon the five-cent international postage letter stamps. Since the Republicans got control of

New York they have reduced the taxes over $3,000,000. That's a good record. There is a large falling off in registration in New York city this year, but the prospects for a Republican victory in the state are very encouraging.

This is the decentest campaign, ac far, we have ever had in the county. Not a single lie has been "natled" yet, or even a "roorback" injected into the
